a testimony touching and human persecuted but still alive

an inspiring man because he believes in others kindness even if he suffered

his story shows us not to judge a book by its own cover

the war and the prosecution.*

Ali Mussa Hassan

survivant du génocide rwandais

5km running.....

knowing that he has family kept him going retrouvailles inattendues avec sa femme :

"to see that his wife is alive was a feeling like he was reborn"

Ali a fait preuve d'un grand courage en survivant à l'horreur humaine

He shows how we must try to understand one another despite hate.

The emotions through his story, like every story we get presented at the Relais, confirm my belief in what we do here is right and important.

Surprised to see how history repeats itself and how Ruanda struggled excessively to form a new government after the genocide...

He help us to realise how risky and poisonous propaganda and racist ideologies can be.

Really inspirational showing how easy it is to fall into toxic pattern.

!!! Keep fighting for democracy
